

Louisiana Trust

for HISTORIC PRESERVATION

Louisiana's Most Endangered Places List

Call for Nominations

Nomination Submission Deadline: Friday, February 16, 2018

The Louisiana Trust for Historic Preservation (LTHP) needs your help in identifying historic places within Louisiana considered to be at risk of being lost or degraded. A historic place or property can be a building, structure, site (including archeological), district, landscape or streetscape with no limit to the number of candidates nominated by a community, group, or an individual. A separate Nomination Form should be used for each individual nomination.

Criteria for consideration for listing:

- Nominated property is historic (at least 50 years old; younger if notably historically unique) and significantly threatened by direct demolition, demolition by neglect, or other threat.
- There is reasonable potential for a positive outcome to prevent demolition and for rehabilitation and repurpose.

Complete and return the Nomination Form and photographs to the LTHP's point of contact. Quality photographs of the exterior and interior (if practical) are needed to show the current physical condition of the nominated historic property. Vintage photographs reflecting the nominated historic property are suggested, but not required.

Submitted nominations are not returnable and submission provides the right by LTHP to use all submitted material on websites, in print, and in media.

Point of contact for information and submission of nominations is LTHP Executive Director, Brian M. Davis, cell: 318.267.5220. Submission is via DropBox and/or email lthp.revolvingfund@gmail.com.
